Dedication

To Taylor Field —

the enterprise of the year that will mean much to the school of the future •

To The Men whomade it possible — Mr. Taylor, the principal who dreamed and labored;
Mr. Bonnell the assistant principal,
who shaped the financial policy;
Mr. Foster, the coach, who inspired and led the athletes on to many victories — this 1929
Keystone is Dedicated •

Foreword

As a symbol of progress
in state, and nation;

As a record of hours of work and pleasure;

As a challenge to the future to gain inspiration from the past.

this KEYSTONE is added to

SYNOPSIS OF THE SENIOR PLAY

"Some Baby"

CAST

Professor Frederick Relyea.....	John Woolcott
Mrs. Wellsmiller (Auntie).....	Catherine Haynes
Sylvia Relyea, his daughter.....	Mabel Armstrong
Philip Stanton, his assistant.....	Trafton Dennis
General Henry Burbeck.....	Stephen Golden
Marcella Burbeck, his daughter-in-law.....	Dorothea Johnson
Mrs. Vivvert, a neighbor.....	Marjorie Jackson
Mrs. Henderson, her mother.....	Edna Harper
Lucille Norton, a neighbor.....	Wilma Laxton
Judge Sanderson.....	Carl Rutherford
Sheriff Johnson.....	Malcolm Smith
Deputy Sheriff Stoker.....	Ralph Horning

ACT I

Dr. Relyea has long been seeking to find the "Elixir of youth"—that wondrous liquid which will make all young again. He has stolen a neighbor's dog to experiment on. When Sylvia, his daughter, learns of this, she fears her father may be imprisoned for theft so she takes a pup to the laboratory and returns the mother dog to the neighbor's kennel. The professor and his assistant, Philip Stanton, Sylvia's sweetheart, see the pup and fully believe the mother dog has been changed to a tiny puppy—thanks to their marvelous Elixir. All they need now is some old person to try the Elixir, and General Burbeck sixty-nine years and three months old, finally consents to take the liquid since he desires to be young again so he may marry Sylvia. Just as Professor Relyea is about to give General Burbeck the Elixir, he is called away. When alone the General spills the liquid containing his youth.

General Burbeck's son has married contrary to his father's wishes. The daughter-in-law, seeking to get help from the General leaves her baby on the sofa where the General was last seen sitting.

The Professor and Philip return, and seeing the empty Elixir bottle and a baby wrapped in General Burbeck's coat, they fully believe their experiment has been a decided success.

ACT II

The Professor and Philip do not quite know what to do with the baby, which they fully believe to be sixty-nine years and three months old. A judge is called, and he assures the Professor that he will be taken up for kidnapping and adjudged insane, while Philip will be held as a murderer. The two men take one drink of something to steady their nerves, and when General Burbeck appears in full size, they believe they are intoxicated and seeing things. In the meantime Sylvia learns of the baby's presence and believes Philip is experimenting on it. In order to spite Philip she promises to marry the General at once.

At this time a neighbor leaves her baby for Sylvia to care for. Sylvia wraps it in her kimona and leaves it on the couch. Another bottle of Elixir is spilt, and when Philip and the Professor return and find the baby and the empty bottle, they fully believe Sylvia has also been turned into a baby.

ACT III

The Professor and Philip are kept busy with two babies on their hands—also the sheriff has the house surrounded since the mothers of the babies say they are kidnappers. Sylvia and the General appear before the harassed Professor and Philip, and the two fully believe ghosts are haunting them. Luckily the mothers of the babies, the babies and Sylvia and the General appear at one time before the Professor and Philip just in time to prevent their taking some of the Elixir also. Everyone is made happy once more.

"Lo, it is the gala night."

ATHLETICS

DEDICATION OF TAYLOR FIELD

Largest High School Field In South End of State Was Dedicated on October 12

Taylor Field, the largest High School athletic field in the south end of the state was dedicated on October 12. The day was featured by a football game between the H. T. H. S. and the F. C. H. S. Martial music was furnished by the bands of the Junior High School and High School. The Rotarians, always loyal to the school closed their houses of business and were present with all their pep. Just to make it a real day of dedication the entire student body for the first time in the history of the school was present in a body. Taylor Field is the result of many years of wise saving of the athletic funds and the co-operation of the community. It is not surpassed in the south end of the state by any other high school. Not only is it large but it has great athletic facilities, because it is patterned after the stadium at the University of Illinois. When one approaches this field, surrounded by a storm proof fence, and sees the huge flag pole extending far into the air it makes one's blood race with patriotic pride.

The feature of the day, the football game, was a contest between the best teams of the conference. In the years since 1923 Harrisburg has had only two defeats at the hands of Frankfort.

The expense has been financed by the proceeds from student activities. The cost was:

Storm proof fence.....	$4,235.00	Cinders	$2,750.00
Forty lots for field.....	7,275.00	Flag pole	225.00
Sidewalks	1,026.00	Incidental expenses	375.00
Tiling	896.00	Tractor and tools.....	475.00
Water mains	925.00	Bleachers	1,772.50
Digging of Track and grading of ground	2,000.00

"Great is thy skill O Builder, Thy fame shall endure for aye."

Review of Season

The football season of nineteen twenty-eight was marked by three special features: the game with Henderson, Kentucky at Henderson, the dedicating of Taylor Field, and the Eldorado game.

The Henderson game was a special event because it was the first out of the state game that the Bull Dogs had engaged in for many a year. Harrisburg won the game and impressed the fact upon the plucky Hendersonians that Harrisburg possessed a football team. Henderson later became western Kentucky Champions and claimants for the State Championship; so the fact that the score by which we won is so little can be appreciated.

The dedicating of Taylor Field was probably the most important event of the season or of any H. T. H. S. season for that matter. A record crowd turned out for the opening game on the field which happened to be with West Frankfort. Although Harrisburg was defeated by the Red Birds, and by a large score, we still maintain that it might have been a different story under different circumstances.

The Eldorado game was a grand climax to a grand season and brought about the breaking of two mythical records. The game played in a field of knee deep yellow clay saw the scoring of more than thirteen points by the winning team and the scoring of both teams which never happened before in the annual clashes.

As a whole the Bull Dogs had a pretty successful season since they won six out of eight games played.

*"And the best of all games is the playing, lad,
If you give them the best in you."*

BERNARD FROMAN—(Captain), Halfback

Froman led the Bull Dogs manfully in nineteen twenty-eight, and made himself feared by all ball carriers because of his hard tackles. His loss because of graduation will be felt by the team.

FLOYD JOSEY—(Captain Elect), Half or Fullback

Floyd had a bit of hard luck in the opening game against West Frankfort when he sprained his shoulder. Although he didn't get to play in all the games the team showed their faith in him by electing him Captain for next season.

JOHN FRANKS—Half and Quarterback

John Franks stepped into a lot of hard luck this season when he broke his ankle in the third game of the season. His flashy end runs and off tackle gains were missed the rest of the season. His loss to the team because of graduation will be hard to fill.

NORMAN DIXON—Fullback

"Red's" steady line plunges were a big factor in all of the Bull Dogs games and it will be hard to find a man who can tackle as he could. "Red" is a senior.

WOODROW "Rabbit" PYLE—Halfback

Little one hundred and twenty-eight pound Rabbit Pyle stepped into the shoes left vacant by John Franks and because of his grit and sensational running he also stepped into the hearts of the fans. Rabbit will be with the school two more years so big things are expected of him.

*"And that is why I am saying, lad
That the best of the fight is the staying lad."*

RAYMOND STUMP—(Second all Conference Team), Center

Stump left the backfield to play the pivot position this year and he did a good job of it. His good passes and hard tackling helped the team out of many tight places. He has another year with the team.

STROTHER REED—(All Conference Team), Guard

Strother plays a sensational game at guard. He seems to have the instinct to know where a play is going and not many plays get very far over him. He has another year in which to play good ball with the Bull Dogs.

STEPHEN GOLDEN—(All Conference Team), End

When a team gained around right end it was usually because Steve had been taken out. In other words he was an exceptionally good end. He was a hard tackler and blocker and won a unanimous position on the all Conference team.

BILL GIBBS—Fullback or Halfback

Bill was the only man on the squad that knew every position on the team. Besides knowing the signals for every position he could pass, punt, and hit the line. He hurt his knee early in the season and couldn't play in all the games, but he will fly high in his remaining two years of football.

JOHN THAD GASKINS—Half or Fullback

Thad was a good man at backing up the line and at punting. He seemed to have the tendency towards getting hurt however and couldn't play in all the games. Thad graduates this year.

MAURICE SULLIVAN—Tackle

Maurice plays a pleasing game at tackle and seldom lets a man gain over him. He will be expected to hold the line pat next year since he is only a Junior this year.

"They fought like brave men long and well."

*"Did the runner flash by
With the score that won the game?"*

HAROLD CORNICK—Guard

Fat is just about the spirit of the team because of his fighting never-to-die spirit. He plays a steady game at guard and will be expected to help the team to victory in his two remaining years at school.

OTIS SMITH—Tackle

Otis was put out of the running before the season had begun by a sprained wrist, but the coach knew what he was capable of, and he was placed at the left tackle position when his wrist healed. He did a good job of it. He will be even better next year since he is only a Sophomore.

HUBERT FOX—End

Hubert is a steady man at end and has a fighting spirit that should be an example to aspiring football players. He plays a steady game and is always in the thick of the mix up. He has another year with the team.

JOHN COOLEY—Guard

Cooley gained his letter because of his fight and pep. He is a good man at interference even though he doesn't weigh so much. He is growing now and will probably play an even better game next year.

OMAR WOMACK—Center

Omar is a hard man to block and is a hard blocker so you can see he is a good football man. He is a good center and will be expected to play even better next year.

HARRY WILSON—End

Harry proved his mettle in the first game of the season when he had to play three quarters of the Henderson game. He is a good scrapper and is hard to block. He was only a Junior but has enlisted in the Navy.

FRANK MILEY—Guard

Frank had bad luck and couldn't stay with the squad all season because of an infected knee, which had to be operated on. His showing when he was with the squad merited a letter however and he can do bigger things next year with the team.

RALPH HORNING—Guard

Tubby was a big man on the squad. When the Coach wanted to put some weight in the line up, he sent Tubby in. It is too bad that he is a senior.

GLENN McCORMICK—Halfback

Shorty was a good back and a hard man to tackle. He was always good for two or three yards through any place in the line. His spirit was an inspiration to the whole squad. He will be missed next year.

WAYNE SHAW—Manager

Some one always has to do the dirty work, and Wayne did it with a will this year. He was always ready to rub down an injured limb or carry a piece of equipment to the field. His wit and humor will be missed next year.

*"Yet to their instincts they were true
And had the genius to be men."*

BASKETBALL SQUAD

FRONT ROW—Hal Rude, Harold Stein, J. B. Gibbons, Bill Gibbs, Omar Womack, Denver Reed, Harry Bozarth.

SECOND ROW—John Blackman (Manager), J. T. Harper, Charles McKenzie, Maurice Sullivan, Jesse White, Glynn McCormick, John Cooley, Scott Leinenbach (Manager).

THIRD ROW—Coach Foster, Captain John B. Franks.

Basketball Review of Season

Harrisburg has at last convinced the Southern part of the State that they can play something besides football. When the season first opened there were not many people in town who thought the team could win a single conference game but the superlative coaching of Coach Foster turned a bunch of rookie butterfly-catchers into one of the smoothest, best teams in this part of the State. Although the team was beaten in the first game of the sectional tournament that was held here, they did credit to themselves because the team that beat them after a hard battle later won the State Championship.

When the season opened, the Coach had two first team men left from last year and it seemed that there were not any suitable men to take their place but by trying several different men at the positions, he found the men that could fill them best and devoted the season to making each man capable in his position. The second team was a good one too, winning as many games as it lost. This team was composed of almost the same team that was called the "Tigers" last year. They are all Juniors so they may take the place of the whole first team next year.

From the standpoint of games won and reputation gained this is the most successful season that the H. T. H. S. has ever had in basketball. Coaches all over Southern Illinois have congratulated Coach Foster on his fighting proteges.

"Never to submit or falter."

INDIVIDUAL SKETCHES

Captain John Franks was probably the hardest fighting man on the team. When a game was lost it hurt him as much as losing a five dollar bill would hurt you. He has lived and played basketball ever since he first knew what it was. The Coach at Junior High predicted that he would make a name for himself in high school. Most of our plays were built around John and he usually started every play. John graduates this year and it will be hard to find some one to fill his position.

Harold Stein was another scrapping member of the team. His guarding and field goals were his main assets but he could pass and dribble as well. Swamproot worked hard for his place on the team and acquitted himself well all season. He will graduate this year and it will be hard to find a running guard to take his place next year.

Bill Gibbs is one of those high tension players who play basketball as if it meant their very life. He has played hard all season and won the admiration of the fans by his fight and determination. He did his best work of the year during the district tournament. Bill still has two years with the school so he may help win a State Championship for the school yet.

Omar Womack plays a stellar position at guard. Very few long passes ever got over his head and he could dribble, pass and shoot, too. Omar came up from the ranks to get the position and the fans were well pleased with his playing. He is a Junior so he may go to a State tournament yet.

J. B. Gibbons played center and controlled the tip about seventy-five per cent of the time. J. B. is a fast dribbler and a good shot under the basket. His reverse pivots were hard to stop and resulted in many baskets for Harrisburg. He is just a sophomore so he will be expected to improve in the next two years.

Among the substitutes we find long tall Denver Reed who is going to bid against J. B. for the center position next year. Jesse White who is a good dependable player and will probably take Stein's place. Harry Bozarth is the happy-go-lucky sharp shooter of the squad. He is so little that he dodges between the legs of a guard to make a basket. Harry ought to be good next year. Hal Rude is Harry's teammate. The two are hard to stop and Hal is death on passing and under basket shots. Maurice Sullivan plays guard for the seconds and does a good job of it. With all the squad, with the exception of John Franks and Harold Stein back again next year, we can expect even a better team for 1930. A state Championship doesn't seem impossible when the 1929 champs just beat us six points after we had led them three quarters in the sectional tournament.

TRIANGULAR MEET

Harrisburg entered into the track season with a spirit by winning a triangular meet held on Taylor Field Saturday, April the sixth, between Marion, Herrin, and Harrisburg.

Although Harrisburg had no fast men for the dashes, they had first places in Norman Dixon in the hurdles, J. B. Gibbons in the mile and half mile, and Floyd Josey in the javelin throw. Harrisburg looked especially good in the hurdles taking first, second, third, and fourth in the high hurdles and first, second, and third in low hurdles. J. B. still looks good on the 880 and mile. He won both races by a good margin in the triangular meet. Floyd Josey also produced by winning first in the javelin throw and second in the shot put. Reed Glascock was quite a dark horse entry when he won second in the high hurdles. He is built for a high hurdler and here's hoping he makes a medal before he is out of school. Glenn McCormick made Norman Dixon stretch to win the low hurdles, being right on his heels and in second place. Froman although not winning any first, did his part by getting two seconds and a third and helping to win a second for the relay team. Although there were no records broken, it must be taken into consideration that it was just a week after track season opened and that a stiff wind was blowing. Considering everything, Harrisburg had good material and may produce just as much or more in the larger and more important meets.

Harrisburg is getting her share of the athletic affairs this year. Two basketball tournaments, the Southern Illinois Track Meet, and the Big Seven Track Meet. The money made from these affairs will go a long way towards paying off the debt on Taylor Field.

The Taylor Field track is a perfect running track and is layed out better than any in Southern Illinois according to the officials and track men who were present Saturday, April 6.

G. A. A.

The Illinois League of High School Girls' Athletic Association known as the G. A. A., was introduced into the Harrisburg Township High School this year by Miss Thompson, director of physical education. Now don't confuse this with the G. A. R.—for this is only a crowd of live-wire girls bent upon pleasure. To be sure it is profitable too, but development of strong muscles and steady nerves alone does not lead the girls to forego their candy and other such unhealthful habits, but rather the sheer joy of doing something a little better than some one else.

Since the G. A. A. presents the work in an enjoyable manner, the earning of awards, which are given for participation in the various sports for a certain number of hours for eight consecutive weeks in physical education classes and the keeping of training rules, has been a sincere pleasure to the girls.

AWARDS

Class Numeral	600 points
School Emblem	1200 points
G. A. A. State Award.....	1600 points
G. A. A. Highest State Award.....	2000 points

In each of the sports offered a Chairman was elected to take charge and to interest the girls in that particular sport. The chairmen of the various sports are:

Baseball	Catherine Gaskins
Tennis.....	Geraldine Favereau
Soccer	Iva Jenkins
Basketball.....	Nellaray Franks
Hiking.....	Callie Walden
Skating.....	Margaret James
Tumbling	Susie Bogut
Volleyball	Rachen Muggee

Presiding over these Chairmen are the following officers:

Physical Education Adviser.....	Miss Catherine Thompson
President	Lorene Powers
Vice-President	Vivian Burton

Last Will and Testament of the 1929 Senior Class

We, the Senior class of the Harrisburg Township High School, do hereby bequeath these sterling qualities to our poor, unfortunate posterity who may need them:

To-wit:

Rue Vanderbilt Kerley hereby bequeaths his superfluous flesh to Billy Reichstagg Armistead.

Lilly Hart leaves her skill as a typist to Mary Nancy Felts.

Malcolm Smith leaves his oratorical abilities to Charles Prout.

John Thad Gaskins leaves his line bucking ability to "Rabbit" Pyle.

John Bynum Franks leaves his ways-with-the-women to "Bozy".

S. D. Golden with the greatest of pleasure, will bestow his broken seat to any junior with a good sense of humor.

Russell Davidson leaves his golden voice to Darrell Moore.

The Ryan twins leave their English tests to any poor sap who wants them.

"Swignog" Stein leaves his five subjects to any flunking junior.

Nelle Capel and Carrie Dora Skaggs will depend upon Ruby Beam and Maurine Miller to keep their "times tardy" record going.

"Horse Face" Dorris leaves his red nose to Frank Miley.

Isadore Rogers leaves the Ag. Club chickens to "Snag" Clark's motherly care.

Kenneth Weaver leaves (?) to Charles McKenzie.

Leslie Thompson gives about six or seven or maybe eight feet of his height to Charles Bridgewater.

Glynn McCormack leaves the freshmen girls to coming seniors.

Mason Bond leaves his popularity to Butner Potter.

No, Wayne Shaw isn't going to give a thing away. He is coming back next year for more.

Margaret Nagel bestows her poetical abilities upon Edna Kirkham.

Brenice Cannon leaves her artistic touch to Madge Wright.

John Preston Lee Woolcott bestows his princely air upon Charles Farrar.

George Walter Scott Leinenbach leaves his pugilistic abilities, handed down to him by Polly Wallace, to Leon Freedman.

SALES and SERVICE

HARRISBURG and ELDORADO

Two Juniors were discussing their breakfast.

"I had an awful good breakfast," said Louise Small.

"So did I," said Polly House. "I had something especially nice that begins with 'N'."

"A norange?" suggested Louise.

"No."

"A napple?"

"No. It was a negg."

Mother: "No, Ralph, no more plum pudding tonight. Don't you know you can't sleep on a full stomach?"

Ralph: "Well, can't I sleep on my back?"

Mrs. Bonnell: "I suppose you carry a memento of some sort in this locket of yours?"

Mrs. Taylor: "Yes, it is a lock of my husband's hair."

Mrs. Bonnell: "But your husband is still alive."

Mrs. Taylor: "Yes, but his hair is gone."

Inquisitive Old Lady: "Where did those large rocks come from?"

Mr. Bonnell (very tired, physically): "The glaciers brought them down."

Same Old Lady: "But where are the glaciers?"

Mr. Bonnell: "They have gone back after more rocks."

Scotchman: "What do you charge for pulling a tooth?"

Dentist: "Five dollars."

Scotchman: "What do you charge for loosening it?"

Edna K.: "Would you mind seeing me across the street?"

"Bozy": "With that gait of yours, I wouldn't mind watching you walk a couple of blocks."

Ray Goblen: "Once I saved a man's life, but I never got a medal for it."

Mr. Taylor: "Give particulars, please."

Ray Goblen: "A drunkard once came home to his apartment and turned on only the hot water to take a bath. He would have been scalded to death, only I happened to be the janitor of the building and there was no hot water."

Doctor: "It will go hard with you this time, Harry; you look as if you have been drinking again."

Harry G.: "Yes, sah, Judge, dat sho' am powful stuff what Ah had. It was dat dere chicken hooch."

Doctor: "Chicken hooch? Why, I have never heard of that before."

Harry G.: "Yes, sah, Doc, chicken hooch. One drink and you lay."

First Frosh: "Get good service from your fountain pen?"

Second Frosh: "'Bout nineteen themes to the gallon."

History Teacher: "When I was your age, J. B., I could name all the presidents off by heart."

J. B. Gibbons: "Yeah, but there was only about ten to remember then."

Abie and Rheba sat all evening without speaking. They were holding hands.

"I wish you would say 'our' occasionally," stormed Mrs. Taylor. "I'm tired of hearing you say 'my car', 'my house'. You know everything doesn't belong to you alone."

The next morning Mr. Taylor was rummaging around the room. "I'm looking for our trousers," replied Mr. Taylor.

George J.: "He sure believes in farm relief."

Glynn M.: "Yeah?"

George J.: "Yeah; just foreclosed the mortgage an' relieved us of our farm."

"Tot": "Preston is an awful flirt—I wouldn't trust him too far."

Miriam: "I wouldn't trust him too near."

Mary Alice Hamby: "I want a cap, please, for my husband."

Clerk: "Yes, madam. What size does he wear?"

Mary Alice: "Well, I really forget. His collars are size sixteen; I expect he'd want about size eighteen or twenty for a cap, wouldn't he?"

Miss Sanders: "Did your father help you with this problem?"

"Cap" Hicks: "No, I got it wrong myself!"

Kenneth W.: "That confounded dog of yours has bitten a chunk out of the calf of my leg."

Rue Kerley: "I can't understand that; he's generally particular what he eats."

Mr. Rogers: "Dear, won't you sing something?"

Isadore R.: "But it is time for the guests to leave."

Mr. Rogers: "I know it."

Miss Sanders: "Now, R. B., where did you get this chewing-gum? I want the truth."

"Nag": "You don't want the truth, teacher, and I'd rather not tell a lie."

Miss Sanders: "How dare you say I don't want the truth? Tell me at once where you got that chewing-gum."

"Nag": "Under your desk."

Folks . . . it's been a Pleasure!

WE'VE heartily enjoyed working with your staff to produce a year book like this

NEXT year, we hope we'll have the opportunity to do our share again

NEW ideas . . . that's what staffs want! And we'll have a hatful of good ones for you when school opens in the Fall . . . just when the members of next year's staff will be scratching heads for new ideas . . . just when they'll be wondering "what's it all about?"

THEN, when they're ready, we'll explain our four-fold service . . . we'll give them the help they need to publish a most successful year book . . .

SALES AND SERVICE

HARRISBURG MOTOR SALES CORP.

Harrisburg is a good town.

Mr. Phillips was determined in his preferences: "I will get married only when I meet a woman who is my direct opposite," he told one young lady.

"Well," she replied tauntingly, "there are many wealthy, intelligent girls in this vicinity."

Mr. Small (at theatre, to talkative occupant of seat in front): "Excuse me but we can't hear a word that's said."

Talkative One (who turned out to be Mr. Lappin): "It's no business of yours what I'm telling my wife."

Mr. Nolen (in history class): "Who was the Black Pirate?"

Louise Small (absent minded): "The son of Old King Cole."

Lady (in drug store): "A box of perfumed salts, sir."

Clerk: "Sorry, lady, Epsom salts don't come perfumed."

Lady: "Oh, I want bath salts."

Farmer: "Would you like to buy a jug of cider?"

Tourist: "Well—er—is it ambitious and willing to work?"

Foreman: "How's it happen that little feller carries two planks to your one?"

Laborer: "'Cos he's too bloomin' lazy to go back fer the other one."

Charles Prout: "A pretty girl is like a melody."

Wayne Gidcumb: "Yes, that one the other night was sharp and sure did knock me flat. So I sent her a note."

Charles: "And what'd she write?"

Wayne: "Oh, said for me not to play around."

Client: "I bought and paid for two dozen glass decanters that advertised at $16 a dozen, f. o. b. and when I got 'em, they were empty."

Lawyer: "Well, what do you expect?"

Client: "Expected 'em full of booze. Isn't that what f. o. b. means?"

A chip on a shoulder is a kind of excess baggage to tote through life.

Mr. Lappin (to Manual Training student): "What's the matter with that hand?"

Student: "Cut it with a saw."

Lappin: "Now, how'd you do that?"

Student: "Sawing."

3/7 Chicken, 2/3 Cat, 1/2 a Goal.

Twice in a moment; not one in a second.
The letter M.

They call him Daniel because he was the ladies' lion.

A doctor is most annoyed when out of patients.

Bob Burnet (to "Precious" Jim Cundiff): "If that bore, 'Russ' Nolen, comes in, tell him I'm out; but don't be working or he'll know you're lying."

Ikey (seeing friend Cohen): "How vas dot fire last week at your place?"

Cohen (nervously): "Sh! Dot vas next week."

Hann: "Ah, you is my friendt, vasn't you?"

Johann: "Ach, yes; but vy esk?"

Hann: "Vell yesterday I stuck up for you."

Johann: "Vy?"

Hann: "Vell, dot Piddlehoover saidt you vasn't fit for to sleep with pigs; und I saidt you vas."

Josh Billings said: "Laff every time yu pheel tickled—and laff once in a while enny how."

Madeline Shockney: "Brenice, it's rude to whisper."

Brenice Cannon: "Well, I was just saying what a funny face she had. So it wouldda been lots ruder if I hadda said it out loud."

Doll: "Yes, he proposed last night while turning the music at my piano."

Poll: "Oh, I see, you played right into his hands?"

What's the penalty for bigamy?

Two mothers-in-law.

Encyclopedia Americana. Backbone—a long flexible bone on which the head sets on the top and the person sets on the bottom.

"How did the game come out?" asked Mr. Bonnell.

"We lost," shouted a bunch of boys.

"What have you in that sack?" asked Mr. Bonnell.

"The Referee," responded the boys.

No, Rue, it isn't necessary to spank a cow to get whipped cream.

The biggest joke John Franks can tell his girl is, "Let's dance."

Miriam Taylor: "Dearest, can't you see my heart's on fire?"

Frank Miley: "Well, do I look like a fire extinguisher?"

Good Will By Good Service

The Good will of a famous New York jeweler was appraised in the Surrogate Court at ten years' profit.

Surely no exorbitant figure when you remember the half century's reputation for square dealing built by that firm.

Well, we know that Service—the one word defining Value, Dependability, Courtesy—is the one sure builder of Goodwill.

Our experience in serving the public has taught us, primarily, that “by their works ye shall know them.” It is our hope that we have your Goodwill; that we have and merit your patronage. If we have failed to gain either or both, our progress has been retarded.
